Trillium Dedications

Margaret Britt
Wesson Campus

Margaret Britt has dedicated nearly 47 years of her life to education. She began working at Co-Lin in 1997 teaching in the Business and Office Technology department. She was the college's first Distance Learning Director and served in that role for a few years before returning to the classroom. Britt continues to serve as a Computer Science Instructor today. She also provides faculty/staff technology training on a regular basis.

Before she came to Co-Lin, Britt taught for Sumpter County Schools (Alabama), Brookhaven Academy, Franklin County Schools, and Lincoln County School District.

Britt has been recognized as Lincoln County Teacher of the Year, Career-Tech Business and Office Technology Program of the Year, Career-Tech Instructor of the Year, Academic Instructor of the Year, HEADWAE honoree, and received the Ann Bradberry Award.

She was a top five finalist for MSVCC Instructor of the Year in 2018 and 2019. Britt is a graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Community College, received her bachelor's degree from the University of West Alabama, a master's degree from Mississippi College, and a specialist from Mississippi State University.

She is married to her Co-Lin sweetheart Gene "Moochie" Britt. They have two sons, Russ and Kyle, and are expecting their third grandchild.

"Margaret is a master teacher! She fully invests herself by encouraging, challenging, and supporting her students. She maintains a genuine passion for educating our students while continually adding innovations to keep her courses interesting and engaging. We are lucky to have her at Co-Lin."

-Brenda Smith
HPR Division Chair, Former Dean of Students

Ann Ball
Simpson County Center

Ann Ball began working part-time at Co-Lin when the Simpson County Center was first established and was housed in the old building in Magee. She began working full-time when the new center opened in Mendenhall in 2005. Ball currently works as the Learning Center Manager.

Ball was selected as Outstanding Faculty/Staff Member for the Simpson County Center in 2011 and received the Howell C. Garner High Performance Award for 2013-2014.

She is married to Jim Ball. They are the proud parents of four children.

"Mrs. Ann Ball is very passionate about the students she serves. She is committed and motivated daily to making every student feel important. Ann is truly an asset and highly respected by the faculty and staff at the Simpson County Center."

-Vice President Dr. Dewayne Middleton

Patrick Patterson joined the Co-Lin family in 1995 as a member of the maintenance staff. He has served the college with professionalism and honesty for over 23 years. Patterson is vital to the everday operations serving as the backbone of the college. He is always willing and eager to assist in making Co-Lin the best it can be.

Patterson is a proud and respected U.S. Army Veteran. He received the Howell C. Garner High Performance Award in 2003.

Patterson is an active member of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church where he regularly volunteers and plays guitar.

"Mr. Patterson exemplifies loyalty, consistency, and dedication. His love for Co-Lin and the faculty/staff and students is evident in his daily smile and morning greeting. These qualities are a great credit to him and Co-Lin. Honoring him with this dedication serves as a reminder of the importance role of each person in accomplishing the Co-Lin mission. For all his contributions, small and large, we cannot say thank you enough."

-Vice President Teresa Busby

Homecoming 2018

Co-Lin friends, students, alumni, faculty, staff, and supporters couldn't have asked for more beautiful weather during Homecoming 2018 festivities. A crisp October morning greeted runners and walkers at the annual Big Wolf 5K. Golfers gathered at Wolf Hollow for the annual Homecoming Golf Tournament.

Across campus, annual meetings were held for the Athletic Alumni Association and the Band and Colette Alumni Chapter. Sports Hall of Fame inductees included the late Sherman "Adron" Hyatt, Ryan Belanger, Greg Briggs, Emily Horne, and Carlos Funchess. Rebecca "Becky" Nix was inducted into the Band and Colette Hall of Fame, and Jonathan Giangrosso was named the Stanley Stewart Outstanding Young Alumni recipient. John W. Pace and Barbara Fuller were honored as Alumni of the Year.

The perfect afternoon, sunny and 75 degrees, drew a large crowd at the Tailgate Party. Kids enjoyed making slime with the Alpha Omega Science Club, fun jumps, face painting, and games. As always, the Sojourners kept the party going with old and new tunes.

Homecoming Queen Taylor Berch and her court were presented in Stone Stadium, and sophomore football players were honored. And to top it all off, the Wolf Pack defeated Southwest 31-17.

EVENTS

2018 Homecoming Honorees

Alumnus of the Year John W. Pace of Hattiesburg is a 1986 graduate of Co-Lin where he was a member of the band and was instrumental in changing the name of the Co-Lin Show Band to the Blue Wave Show Band. He attended the University of Southern Mississippi and received a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and paralegal studies, and a master's degree in counseling from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Pace retired from a career in social work after serving at four state institutions over 25 years. Pace has volunteered more than 40,000 hours of community service. He received the Governor's Initiative for Volunteer Service and was also awarded the President's Call to Service Award for Lifetime Achievement.

Alumna of the Year Barbara Dale Welch Fuller of Mendenhall is a 1967 graduate of Co-Lin. She received a bachelor's degree in English with a minor in secondary education from the University of Southern Mississippi and completed graduate studies at USM and Mississippi College. She taught high school English for 44 years and retired from Simpson County Academy (SCA), which later dedicated the building where she taught "The Barbara Fuller Building" to honor her 40 years of service. Fuller was inducted into the Mississippi STAR Teacher Hall of Fame, was recognized as SCA Teacher of the Year three times, and selected to Who's Who Among Teachers. Fuller was twice named a William Winter Scholar and Vance Teacher Scholar.

Band and Colette Hall of Fame Inductee Rebecca "Becky" Nix of Meadville is a 1955 graduate of Co-Lin where she studies business education and accounting. While at Co-Lin, Nix was a Colette, member of Phi Theta Kappa, and the Baptist Student Union. Her career has included serving as an executive secretary, a mathematics teacher, a ministry assistant, and a real estate agent. She is very involved in the community and has received the Outstanding Lion Award, James A. Torrey Outstanding Service Award, and the Melvin Jones Fellow Award for dedicated human service. She is a charter and lifetime member of the Co-Lin Band and Colette Alumni Association where she served as president in 2013-2014 after working as vice president.

Stanley Stewart Outstanding Young Alumni Jonathan Giangrosso of Mt. Olive graduated from Co-Lin's Associate Degree Nursing program in 2007, received an Associate of Arts in 2008, and earned an Emergency Medical technician certificate in 2009. He was a member of the Blue Wave Show Band (serving as president in 2006), basketball pep band, symphonic band, and ran soundboard for the jazz band. Giangrosso received a bachelor of science degree in nursing from William Carey University. He current serves as a traveling emergency room nurse. When not on a travel assignment, he works at Magee General Hospital emergency room. He also volunteers as a medical team leader on medical mission trips to Honduras.

Sports Hall of Fame

Carlos Funchess of Prairieville, Louisiana is a 1989 graduate of Co-Lin where he helped lead the Wolf Pack basketball team to two state championships and a seventh-place finish at the NJCAA Tournament. Funchess earned All-State accolades and played in the state All-Star Game. After Co-Lin, he attended the University of Louisiana-Monroe where he was named first-team All-Southland Conference and led the Indians to two tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. He won the 1991 College Slam Dunk Content on ESPN. He played professionally for the Miami Heat, Global Basketball Association, Continental Basketball League, and in Caracas, Venezuela. He is now the head coach of Southern University women's basketball team.

The late Sherman "Adron" Hyatt of Hazlehurst is a 1951 graduate of Co-Lin and was a two-time All-State selection in basketball. Hyatt served in the United States Air Force for 25 years, received the rank of Senior Master Sergeant and served one tour in Vietnam as a squadron leader. During his basketball career with the military, Hyatt earned the Most Valuable Player award and was named to the All-Unicom team four times. He played and coached numerous Air Force base teams for more than 20 years. Hyatt passed away in 2009.

Greg Briggs of Houston, Texas is a 1989 graduate of Co-Lin where he played both basketball and football. He came to Co-Lin on a basketball scholarship, but later decided to try out for the football team where he was a starting free safety and helped the team to a South Division championship. After Co-Lin, he played for the University of Arkansas and Texas Christian University where he received All-SWAC honors. Briggs spent six years in the NFL with the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Bears, and Minnesota Vikings where he played as a linebacker and on special teams. He is a two-time Super Bowl champion with the Cowboys. Briggs also played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League of American Football where he led the team in tackles and won the World Bowl in 1995.

Emily Horne of Dayton, Texas is a 2006 graduate of Co-Lin where she was named All-Region, All-State, and All-American in softball. Horne led the 2006 softball team to a third-place finish in the NJCAA National Tournament and was named to the All-Tournament Team. She still holds the pitching records at Co-Lin for ERA (0.72), opponent's batting average (0.155), career strike outs (366), single season wins (21 (twice)), and career wins (42). After Co-Lin, Horne attended Arkansas Tech University on a softball scholarship and majored in history. She is the lead teacher at Berta Alyce Early Childhood Education Center.

Ryan Belanger of Zachary, Louisiana is a 2005 Co-Lin graduate where he was named All-State, NJCAA All-World Series and All-Region. He was a key member of the 2005 team that won state, regional, and super regional championships, and Belanger still holds the strikeout record for Co-Lin. After Co-Lin, he attended the University of Southern Mississippi where he played baseball and was named second-team All-Conference USA. Belanger majored in sports administration and minored in business. Following his time at USM, Belanger committed to the Kansas City Royals Organization. He now works as an account manager at Nalco.

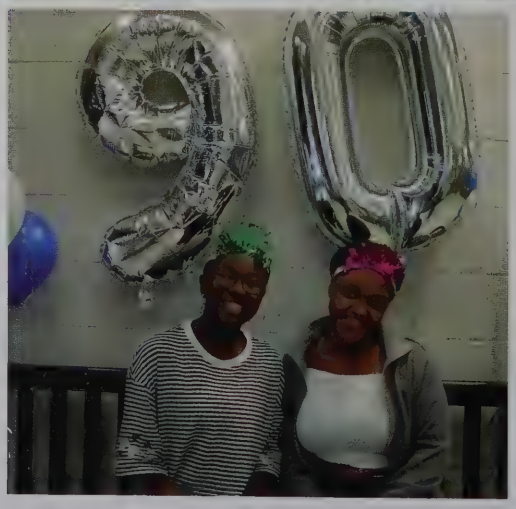
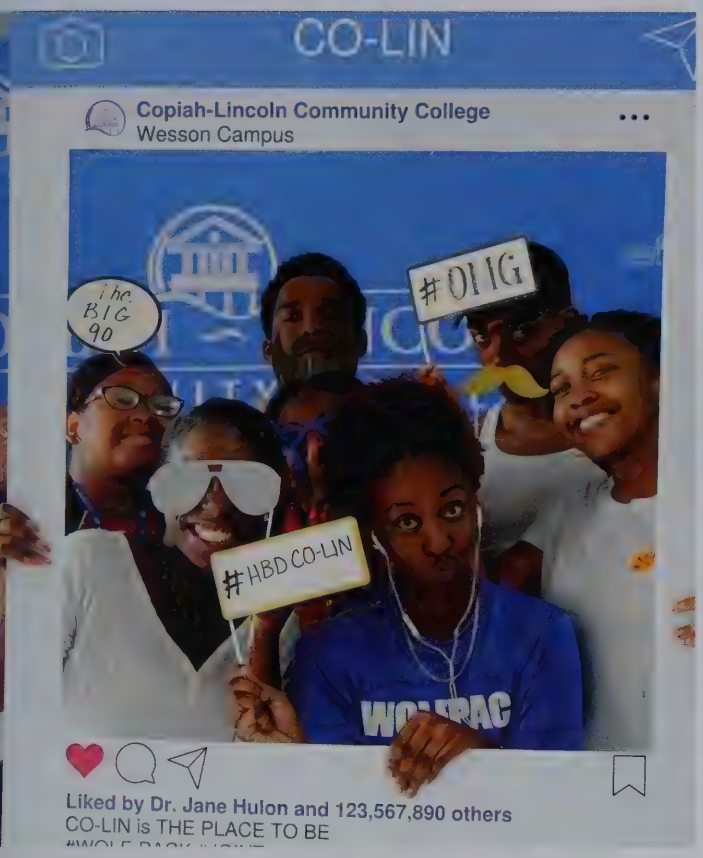
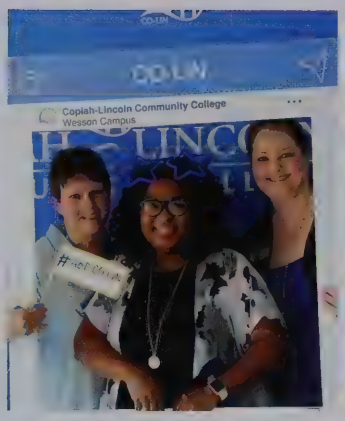
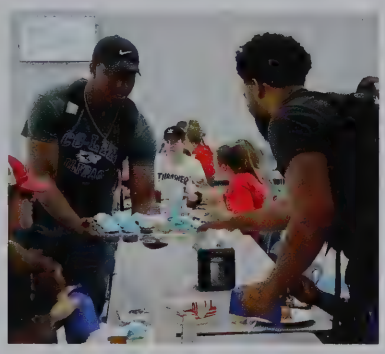
HAPPY 90TH

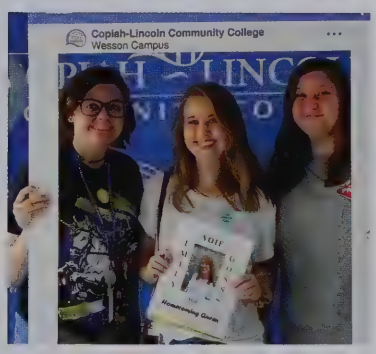
On September 10, 1928, the first day of class began at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Agricultural High School. Nearly a century later, on September 10, each campus held a celebration to mark the milestone. Co-Lin always has been and always will be The Place To Be.







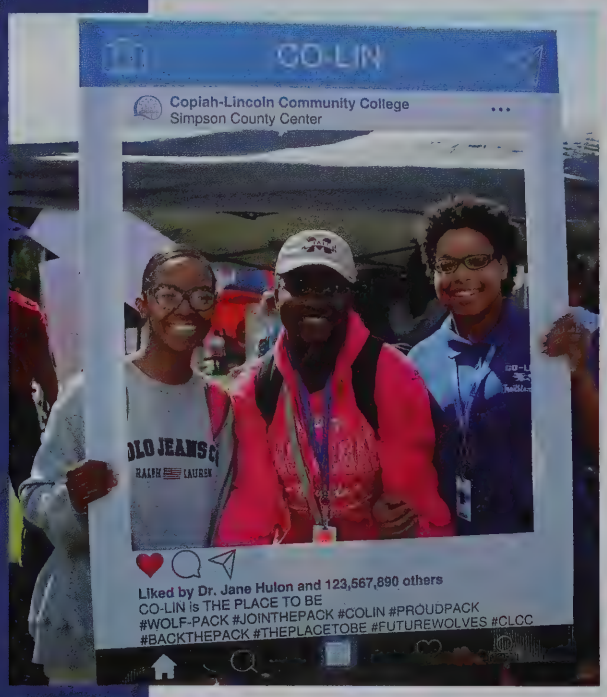


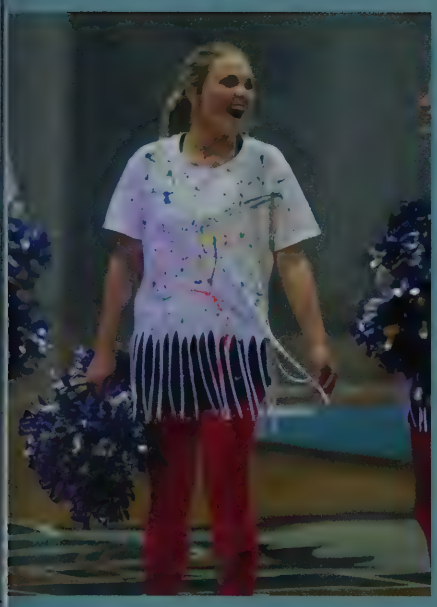


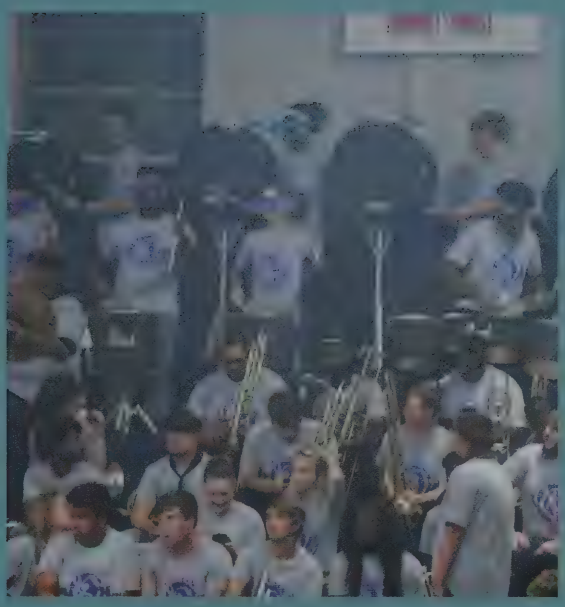
ONLY GETTING BETTER WITH AGE

HOMECOMING TAILGATE PARTY

The front lawn of the Simpson County Center was packed with fun jumps, games, food, community members, students, and music at the annual Homecoming Tailgate Party. Co-Lin students played host to students from local high schools for a day of celebration and friendly competition.







BLACK OUT PEPRALLY

The cheerleaders, mascots, band, colettes, color guard, and football team made the annual Homecoming Peprally a memorable night and set the tone for an exciting week.

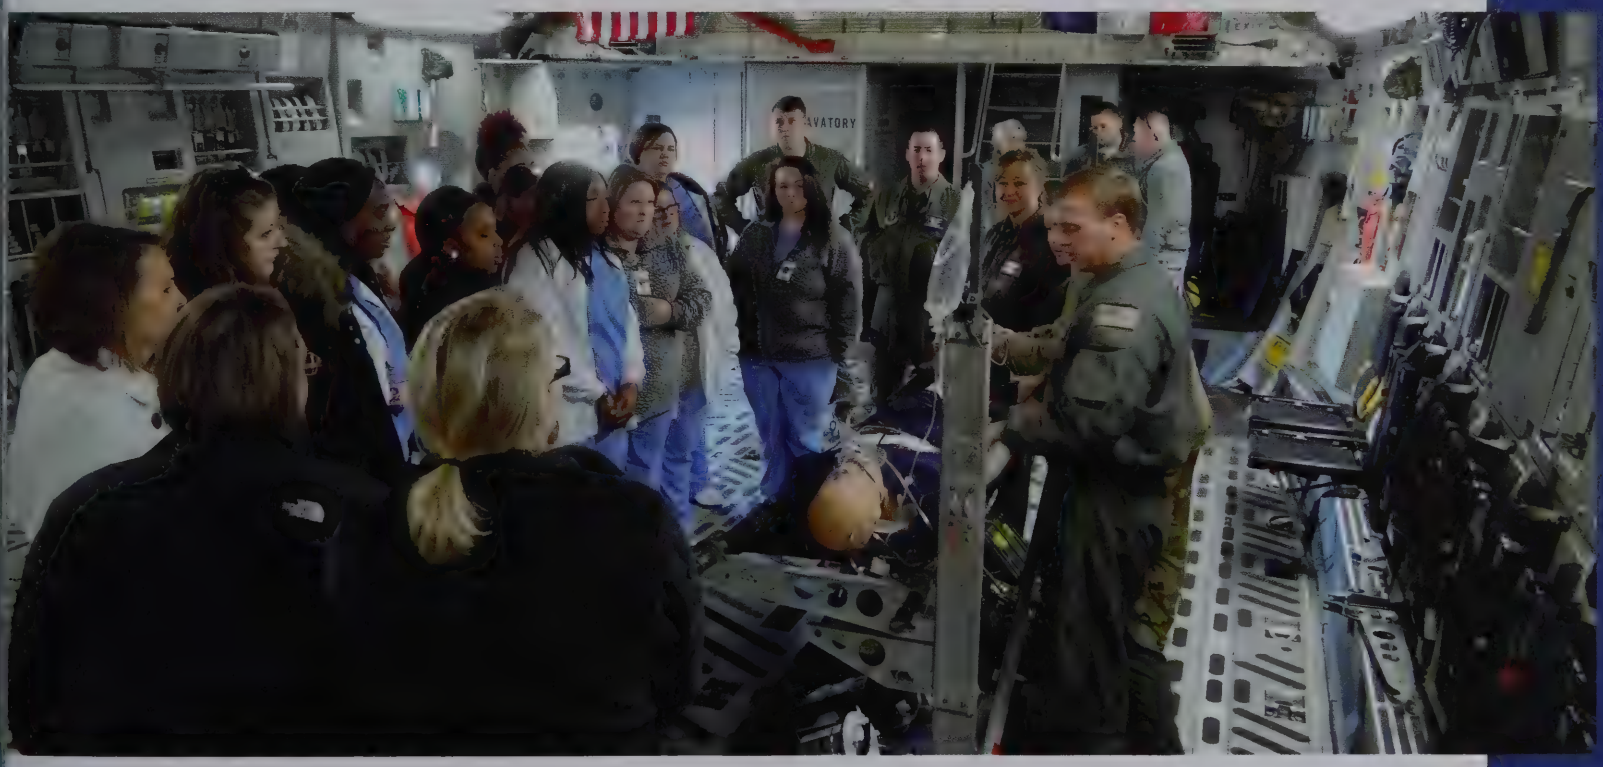
A New Dining Experience

Henley Cafeteria on the Wesson Campus received a major face lift over the summer. The dining hall received a fresh coat of paint and six new wall-mounted, flat screen TV's. Major renovations occurred in the serving area and kitchen. New meal stations like Farm to Table feature foods prepared with locally sourced ingredients ranging from catfish po'boys to collard greens to homemade potato salad. Other new stations include pizza and flat bread options, specialty salads, and the rotisserie includes slow-cooked meats and vegetables. The serving area boasts new flooring, lighting, serving stations, and plates and utensils, while the kitchen has new all-digital equipment. Renovations were partially funded by a grant received from the Blue Cross & Blue Shield of Mississippi Foundation.

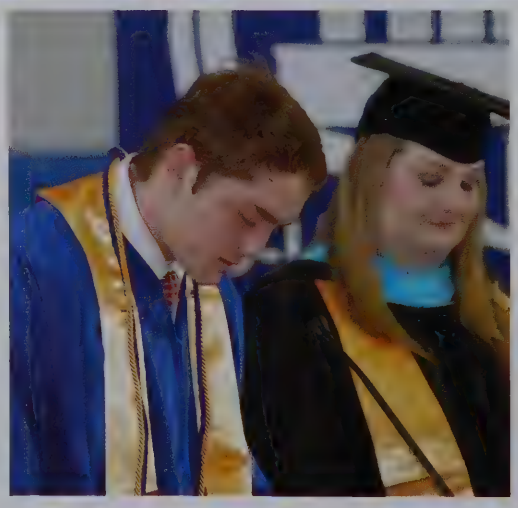
Flying Hospital Tour

Practical nursing students from the Simpson County Center toured a 'flying hospital' conducted by the 183rd Air Evacuation Squadron of the Mississippi Air National Guard. The students toured one of the 172 Airlift Wing's C-17 aircraft for a partial demonstration of a medical evacuation mission. Co-Lin was the first Mississippi community college to complete this 'flying hospital' tour.



CONGRATS GRADS

Fall Commencement exercises were held in Mullen Gymnasium on the Wesson Campus on December 12, 2018. Natchez Campus graduate Maya'lissa McNair gave the invocation, followed by Simpson County Center graduate Zoe Welch leading the audience in the pledge. Wesson Campus graduate Swayze Bozeman offered the benediction. Over 170 students from all three campuses received degrees and certificates.



THE PLACE TO BE

Student Government Association on the Wesson Campus hosted a semi-formal dance for students to enjoy before heading home for Spring Break. The Sojourners provided the entertainment for this fun-filled evening at The Thames Center.

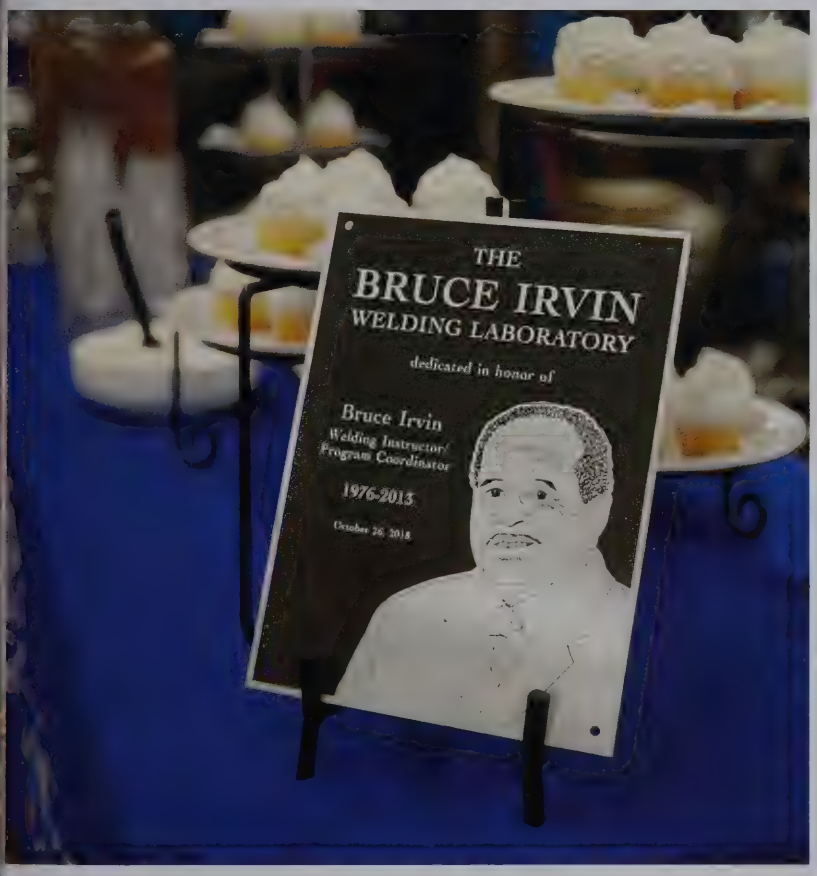
Irvin Dedication

Over 100 people crowded into the room as the welding lab on the college's Wesson Campus was officially named the Bruce Irvin Welding Lab, dedicated in honor of Irvin's 30 years as a welding instructor. Family, colleagues, friends, and former students came to support Irvin on this special day.



Natchez Literary & Cinema Celebration

The 30th annual Natchez Literary and Cinema Celebration "The Great River Road" was held February 21-23, 2019. The celebration welcomed authors, journalists, historians, chefs, and a packed audience. Outstanding students and instructors were honored as William Winter Scholars and Vance Scholars. Several book signings were held with authors including Anne Butler, Dr. Karen Cox, Beth Ann Fennelly, and Tom Franklin. NLCC goers also had the opportunity to tour the Concord Quarters and enjoy a luncheon at The Pilot House.

WOLF PACK TRAVELS

The business division gives students the opportunity to travel abroad during the summer. MaryBeth Munn was one of the students that traveled to England, Italy, Switzerland, and France, visiting the cities of London, Paris, Zurich, Rome, Florence, and Venice.

"My favorite city was definitely Rome. There's so much history and it was really neat to see all the iconic places in person. It was surreal to visit the Eiffel Tower, Big Ben, and the Colosseum. One of the best parts of the trip was being able to experience the culture of each destination firsthand." -MaryBeth Munn

The Wolves finished the 2018 season ranked No. 18 in the NJCAA poll with a 6-4 overall record, 5-1 in the MACJC South Division which earned them a playoff birth for the first time in four years.

Unfortunately, the Wolves, the No. 2 team from the South, fell to eventual NJCAA National Champion East Mississippi 31-7 in Scooba in the semifinal round.

Eleven Wolves were tabbed for MACJC All-State selections and the Wolves' head coach Glenn Davis was named MACJC South Division Coach of the Year.

Davis, in his 15th year at the helm, has led the Wolves to one MACJC State Championship, and MACJC runners-up on three occasions. Davis joins Buddy Stephens of East Mississippi Community College as recipients of MACJC Coach of the Year honorees this year.

Co-Lin's Jalen Bell, a 6'5, 350-pound sophomore offensive lineman from Amory, Miss., was named NJCAA Second Team All-American, NJCAA All-Region XXIII, All-MACJC First Team, and MACJC Offensive Lineman MVP. Bell helped the Wolves rack up 1,281 rushing yards on the year.

Kundarrius Taylor, a freshman wide receiver from Memphis, Tenn., also earned NJCAA All-Region XXIII and All-MACJC First Team honors. Taylor finished the year with 31 receptions, 547 receiving yards, and eight touchdowns, all team-highs. The freshman averaged 54.7 yards per game.

Swayze Bozeman, a sophomore linebacker from Flora, Miss., rounded out the Wolves NJCAA All-Region honors. Bozeman was also named All-MACJC First Team. Bozeman led the Wolves with 91 tackles on the year. The sophomore also posted 5.5 tackles for loss, one sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, and three pass breakups.

Freshman wide receiver Malik Heath, from Jackson, Miss., sophomore center Lee Sampson of Vaughn, Miss., sophomore quarterback Hayden Davis of Madison, Miss., and redshirt freshman Taijh Alston of Carthage, N.C. all landed All-MACJC First Team honors.

Heath finished the year with 333 receiving yards and four scores, while Davis was 120-of-205 in passing for 1,456 yards and 17 touchdowns. Alston finished the season with 78 tackles and a team-high seven sacks.

TK McLendon, a sophomore tight end from Soperton, Ga., Jalen Bedell, a freshman defensive lineman from Greenwood, Miss., Harrell Blackmon, a sophomore defensive back from Jackson, Miss., and Natrone Brooks, a freshman defensive back from Starkville, Miss. all landed All-MACJC Second Team recognition.

Cheer

The Co-Lin Cheerleaders racked up the awards at UCA Cheer Camp in Tuscaloosa, Alabama last summer. With 13 newcomers on the squad, the team received plaques for top three performances in the Time-Outs and Fight Song categories. The team also earned all superior evaluations, the highest rating possible, in appearance, formations, enthusiasm, loudness, stunts, motions, and overall ability to involve the crowd.

Mr. and Miss Wolf, Co-Lin's award-winning mascots, earned a superior plaque for their outstanding performances.

The cheerleaders are under the direction of four-year sponsor and former Wolf Pack cheerleader Micah Allen.

The Co-Lin Lady Wolves completed yet another successful season finishing with a 21-7 overall record and a regular season second place finish in the MACJC South Division.

The Lady Wolves breezed through the opening round of the MACJC State Tournament handing the East Mississippi Lady Lions a 65-47 loss. In the semifinals, the Lady Wolves defeated the No. 1 seed from the North, Itawamba, 57-55 on a last second buzzer beater by freshman Camryn Davis. The Lady Wolves lost a heartbreaker to Jones College 58-52 in the MACJC Championship game.

In the NJCAA Region 23 Tournament, the Lady Wolves defeated Pearl River 69-66 in the opening round. The Lady Wolves season came to an end with a 64-59 loss to Mississippi Gulf Coast in the semifinals.

This season also saw head coach Gwyn Young hit another milestone in his illustrious coaching career by picking up his 950th win, a 81-50 blowout of Meridian Community College. This puts Coach Young in second place among active NJCAA coaches and third all time.

Coming into the 2018-2019 season, Coach Kenny Bizot hoped that the Wolves could build on their 2017-2018 success, but unfortunately a rash of injuries derailed the Wolves as they played with only seven players by the end of the season. The team finished one game short of .500 at 11-12 overall and 4-10 in the South Division.

The Wolves lost a host of talent to graduation with four players signing to continue their basketball career's at the next level. Youry White signed with the University of Louisiana at Monroe, Johnathan "Biscuit" Floyd signed with Alcorn State University, Anthony Jones signed with William Carey University, and Darrian Wilson signed with Jackson State University. They join Jonathan Dalton, a senior at Southeast Missouri State, as former Wolves playing at the next level.

The Wolf Pack finished the 2018 season with a 20-21 overall record and 9-19 in MACJC play. Five members of the team earned MACJC All-State recognition. Catcher CJ Estave and outfielder Jaylyn Williams were selected to the First Team while pitcher Christian Day, outfielder Ryan Zimmerman, and infielder Austin O'Flynn were named to the Second Team. Nine sophomores off the 2018 team signed with four-year colleges and universities. They include Hayden White, Christian Day, and CJ Estave signed with Delta State, Justin Hutton and Jordan Bowden signed with the University of Arkansas Monticello, Jaylyn Williams and Chandler Dillard signed with Jackson State University, and Blake Sigrest and Tyler Ethridge signed with Blue Mountain College.

The 2019 Wolf Pack are loaded with 18 freshmen. Returning sophomores include Ryan Zimmerman, Mark Hubbard, Austin Tidwell, Thomas Slagle, and Madison Smith. Veterans on the pitching staff are Conner Ingram, a Spring Hill College commit, Zach Smith, and Alex Moody.

Speed, athleticism, and team chemistry will give the Wolves the opportunity to make a playoff run this season.

Softball

The 2018 Lady Wolves finished the 2018 season with a 26-19 overall record earning them a berth in the playoffs for the first time since 2009. In the first round of the playoffs, the Lady Wolves dropped the best-of–three series 11-5 and 7-3 to the Pearl River Lady Wildcats. The 2018 season would see Allen Kent retire as the head coach after 16 seasons.

A familiar face has returned to Co-Lin to lead the 2019 Lady Wolves. Meleah Brown Howard ('08) replaced long time coach Allen Kent at the helm of the Lady Wolves. She was a leader on the 2008 Lady Wolves team that finished runners-up in the NJCAA National Softball Tournament.

Howard comes to the Lady Wolves after a successful high school coaching career at East Webster High School and most recently Lawrence County High School.

Returning to the Lady Wolves in 2019 are Harmoni Ashley, Julie Scheuermann, Callie Fortenberry, Mackenzie Gros, Makenzie Smith, and MACJC Second Team All-Stator Tori Pettit. This nucleus along with a talented group of freshmen will give the 2019 team momentum going into MACJC play.

Lost to graduation were Alex Anthony, Bailey Root, Taylor Bryant, and Paige Hulin. Anthony and Root were members of the MACJC First Team, while Bryant and Hulin earned MACJC Second Team honors. Root will continue her career with Belhaven University and Hulin will play for Mississippi College.

The Co-Lin Lady Wolves grabbed two MACJC Championships in 2017-2018 at No. 1 and No. 2 doubles. Bringing home the state titles were the No. 1 team of Gyselle Daza and Carmen Manicea and the No. 2 doubles team of Katy and Kara Clark. Daza and Katy Clark were finalist at No. 1 and No. 3 singles. The team finished with a 10-3 record. Their state title in doubles qualified Daza and Manicea for the NJCAA Division I National Championship in Waco, Texas.

At the national tournament, Daza and Manicea went 5-5 overall. Both players did extremely well in singles and doubles competition. Daza signed with Saginaw Valley State University while Manicea returns for her sophomore year.

The 2018-2019 team will be anchored by five talented sophomores including doubles state champions Katy and Kara Clark, national tournament participant Carmen Manicea, Faith Bergeron, and Ashlyn Locke. They are joined by Columbian Paula Coronado, Madison and McKenzie Shows. First year head coach Rob Channell looks to make a run at the state title.

The Wolves finished the 2017-2018 season with a 9-5 record, three state titles, and a trip to the 2018 Division I NJCAA National Championship in Plano, Texas. The duo of Sebastian Osorio and Juan Pablo Pinilla rolled past competition in the MACJC State Tournament at No. 1 and No. 2 singles and No. 1 doubles which led the team to qualify for nationals. It was the men's team first trip to the national tournament since 2001.

Co-Lin made a great showing at the National Tournament finishing ranked No. 21 in the country. Three players made it to the round of 16 in the main draw and had two semifinalists in the back draw.

With only Braden Ishee returning in 2018-2019, the Wolves are looking to rebuild under first year head coach Rob Channell. New to this year's team are Jason Clayburn, Ray Drane, Drew Nelson, and Toby White.

Golf

The Wolf Pack golf team finished the 2017-2018 season capturing third place in the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) and fourth in the NJCAA District D Golf Tournament. Sophomore Zach Smith of Madison was named MACJC Second Team All-State. Smith also qualified for the NJCAA National Division II Golf Championship where he finished 16th out of 130 of the nation's best community college golfers.

Craig Hennington has taken over the helm for the 2018-2019 season. Hennington is no stranger to the program having served as the Wolf Pack assistant coach for 12 years.

The Wolf Pack have three talented returning sophomores this season. Lucas Brewer, Bryce Chapman, and Cameron Little bring leadership to the team. Hennington will rely on a group of seven talented freshmen with tremendous potential to compliment the sophomores.

Hennington looks to continue the winning tradition of Co-Lin golf.

Archery

In it's first year of existence, Co-Lin's competitive archery team has made history. The team won the Mississippi Community College State Indoor Championship in the Fall competing against Mississippi college and university teams. Three team members qualified to compete at the National Field Archery Association (NFAA) Vegas Shootout hosted in Las Vegas, Nevada. The tournament welcomed over 3,700 registered shooters from colleges and universities across the nation including Iowa State, Mississippi State University, and University of California. Co-Lin was one of only three community/technical colleges represented at the competition.

At the State Indoor Championship, KrysLynne Poole captured first place in the Basic Bow Female Division, Marc McNeese took first place in Basic Bow Male Division, and finishing behind McNeese was Austin Smith who captured second place honors out of all colleges and universities in the state. Four-year colleges and universities participating in the competition were Mississippi State University, William Carey University, Mississippi College, and Blue Mountain College.

All three archers scores seeded them in excellent position leading into the national competition. Smith and McNeese were seeded number two and three respectively in the men's division, while Poole was seeded number four in the women's division.

In the first round of Nationals, all three Co-Lin students knocked a university student out of the lead. In an elimination round, Poole placed third in the nation in the Women's Basic Bow Division, McNeese placed third in the nation in Men's Basic Bow Division, and Smith finished fourth in Men's Basic Bow. In addition, Smith and Poole placed third overall as a mixed team.

The team is also the reigning Mississippi Community College State 3D Champions. The Wesson Campus Archery Team is coached by John McDonald.

Board of Trustees

New Leadership

After serving as chairman of the Co-Lin Board of Trustees for 17 years, Eugene Bates retired as chairman effective June 30, 2018. Bates was appointed to the Board in June of 1983 and elected chairman August of 2001. He will continue to serve on the Board as Chairman Emeritus.

Bates was honored in June of 2012 by the Co-Lin Board of Trustees with the dedication of the P. Eugene Bates Residence Hall on the college's Wesson Campus.

Bates is a graduate of the Jefferson County public school system, attended Co-Lin, and then obtained his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in agriculture from Mississippi State University. A cattleman and conservationist, Bates and his wife, the former Susie Mae Bullen, are the owners and operators of Villa Gayoso and Idlewild Plantations. They are members of First Baptist Church in Natchez where he serves as a deacon.

They are the proud parents of two daughters, Paula Green (Ron) and Evie Peavey (Woodie), and the grandparents of nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Following Bates retirement as chairman, Thomas Sasser of Bogue Chitto was elected as chairman effective July 1, 2018. Sasser was appointed to the Board in December of 1985 and was elected Secretary in August of 2001.

Sasser graduated from Bogue Chitto and attended Co-Lin. He received a Bachelor's Degree from The University of Southern Mississippi and a Master's degree from Mississippi College. He was married to the late Annette Sasser and they had two sons, Stanley Wade Sasser and the late Gary Paul Sasser.

In Memory

Board Member Vincent Turner passed away on February 2, 2019. He was a graduate of Jefferson County High School, Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, and Alcorn State University where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees. Turner was the Superintendent of Education for Jefferson County School District and served as a member of the Co-Lin Board of Trustees for three years. He was a leader in education, having 31 years of experience in elementary and high school instruction, coaching, and administration.

Turner was the father of three children, Percy Vintrell Turner, Haley Ventrease Turner, and DeaBreaun Vinshay Turner.

On February 7, 2019, The Co-Lin Board of Trustees passed a resolution in memory of Mr. Turner.

Dr. Jane G. Hulon
President

Dr. Jane G. Hulon is serving in her first year as President of Copiah-Lincoln Community College. For the past 10 years, she has served at the Vice President's level at the college. In past position at Co-Lin, she served as Vice President of Instructional Services, Academic Dean of Instruction, and Director of Planning and Research. Dr. Hulon has held instructional, research, and administrative positions at East Mississippi Community College's Golden Triangle campus, Mississippi State University, Mississippi Department of Education, Jones County Junior College, and Jones County Schools.

Dr. Hulon attended Jones County Junior College and received both a Bachelor of Science Degree and Master of Education Degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Southern Mississippi. She earned her doctorate in Higher Education Administration from Mississippi State University.

She is a member of numerous organizations including the Mississippi Academic Officers Association (Past-President), the Mississippi Association of Colleges, Southern Association of Colleges with Associate Degrees, American Association of University Women, Wesson Chamber of Commerce (Past-Member, Board of Directors), Brookhaven Rotary Club, and Wesson Garden Club.

She has participated in the Education Policy Fellowship Program, Leadership Jones County, and Mississippi Community College Leadership Academy (MCCLA). She is a past recipient of Co-Lin's High Performance Award, the Phi Theta Kappa Go Getter Award, the Delta Kappa Gamma Red Rose Award, the Phi Theta Kappa National Distinguished Administrator Award, the Ann Bradberry Award, and the Wesson Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Educator Award. Hulon was inducted into the Delta Kappa Gamma international society for key women educators.

Dr. Hulon was married to the late Jim Hulon and is the proud mother of two sons, Will and Drew. She and her sons are members of Zion Hill Baptist Church.

Teresa Busby
Vice President, Natchez Campus

Teresa A. Busby is in her 13th year as Vice President of the Natchez Campus. As Vice President she is responsible for overseeing all aspects of campus operations, including instruction, library services, student services, physical plant, and campus police.

She served as Dean of the Natchez Campus from 2006-2008. Her previous academic service includes Vice President of Student Services at Moultrie Technical College in Moultrie, GA; Director of Student Services at Athens Technical College in Athens, GA; Undergraduate Program Coordinator for the School of Forest Resources at the University of Georgia; and Employee Relations and Development Coordinator at Mississippi State University.

She graduated with honors from Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College and received her Bachelor of Arts (Cum Laude) in History and Master of Arts in History from Mississippi State University. She is a graduate of the Mid-South Community College Fellowship Program (2007) and Leadership Elbert County (GA), and was chosen as an outstanding business woman in Moultrie, GA. Busby was named as one of the sixty distinguished alumni of the Mississippi State University College of Arts & Sciences. In 2018, she was awarded the United States Department of Defense Patriotic Employer Award.

She is a member of the Mississippi Academic Officers Association for Community Colleges; recipient of the Howell C. Garner High Performance Award (2009); and recipient of the 2015-2016 Trillium Dedication for the Natchez Campus. An active member of the local and regional community, Busby has served on a number of not-for-profit boards. She has served as Chairman of the Natchez-Adams County Chamber of Commerce Education Committee since 2010, serves on the Parchman Ordeal Committee for the City of Natchez, serves on the Natchez Little Theater Advisory Board, and serves on the board of Home with Hero's. She served as Chair of the NASD P16 Council and received the NASD Superintendent's Choice Award in 2015. She is well known in the Miss-Lou for her dedication and tireless support of veterans' issues and animal welfare.

Busby is the proud mother of two sons, John and William, and the proud grandmother of three grandchildren. Her son John and his wife Ashley live in Natchez with their children Breanna, Gabriel, and Noah; and her son William and his wife Amanda live in Birmingham, AL.

THE WOLF IS RELENTLESS, NEVER QUITS, AND DOESN'T LOOK BACK.

In closing...

As we close the 88th edition of the Trillium, we are thankful to all of the people who have made this year a success. We could not produce this book without the help of our Jostens Yearbook representatives Chris Creswell and Lori Shaw, Johnny Smith Photography, Harmoni Ashley, Lucas Calvert, Nancy McFarland, JUCOWeekly, and last, but certainly not least my co-sponsor Scarlett Hart, who without her assistance this book would not exist.

THE HEART OF A WOLF

Once a Wolf, always a Wolf.
